How do I use Mail-A-Book?

Mail-A-Book is a collection of paperbacks, audio and visual materials which you can order and have mailed to you at no cost.

Who is eligible to use this service?

This tax-supported service from the Arrowhead Library System is available to rural residents, those who live in a city without a public library, and homebound residents living in a city with a public library. This service is available to residents of Carlton, Cook, Itasca, Koochiching, Lake, Lake of the Woods, & St. Louis Counties. Rural residents who live in the following Itasca County areas, are eligible for Mail-A-Book service only if they are homebound: Town of Arbo, Town of Blackberry, Town of Feely, Town of Grand Rapids, Town of Harris, Town of Sago, Town of Spang, Town of Wabana, City of Cohasset, City of LaPrairie, and the City of Warba. Residents who are homebound in the city of Duluth are served by the city library.

To Order Materials:

- Select your titles from one of our current catalogs. (If you would like something not listed in the catalogs–go to Interlibrary Loan instructions).
- Materials can be ordered:
 1. by e-mail at: mailbook@alslib.info
 2. by using the form on our web page at: www.alslib.info/services/mail-a-book
 3. by regular mail with a letter, postcard, or an order card,
 4. or via the phone at 218-741-3840 or 800-257-1442
 5. By using our online catalog, arrowhead.ent.sirsi.net, search for your item in the search box, then decide where you want your item to come from:
 - a. Get an item from Mail-A-Book (we pay postage both ways): after searching look to the left hand side of the screen for the “Library” section, and select Mail-A-Book from the list of libraries, click on the title you want, find the specific Mail-A-Book item you want, and click on “place hold” directly to the right of the Mail-A-Book copy, then log in with your library card number and PIN when prompted, select Mail-A-Book as your pickup location, then click on “place hold”.
 - b. From another library (Interlibrary loan, we pay postage going to you only, you are responsible for getting it back to a library): after searching, click on the item you want, click on the “select an action tab” in the upper right corner of the popup window, then log in with your library card number and PIN when prompted, select Mail-A-Book as your pickup location, then click on “place hold”.
- Print your name, address, county & zip code on each order. (Hint: Some patrons are using mailing address labels when ordering on our order cards.) Put your Arrowhead Library System Library Card number on your order (14-digit number). If you do not have a library card, print “no card” and we will send you an application with your order. List the titles you would like to receive.
- Format means audio CD book (CD), digital video disc (DVD), music cd (MC), video game (VG), or leaving the space blank will be interpreted as book format.
- Substitute means that we will supply similar books if the material you requested is checked out to another patron.
- We do not substitute for visual or audio materials.
- Send to another library means Interlibrary Loan (see instructions below).
- If you are concerned about privacy, please place your order card in an envelope or see the privacy data information listed at the bottom.

When the materials arrive:

- Mail-A-Book materials will arrive in a zippered cloth bag. You will use this bag to return your order.
- Along with the materials you requested, will be a date due slip, a return mailing label with prepaid postage and our address, and a blank order card.

To return materials:

- Place return postage paid label in the plastic pocket on the front of the bag.
- Place the materials you are returning in the cloth bag.
- Enclose your new order card in the bag also.
- Zip the bag closed and put it in your mailbox.
- Materials can also be returned to one of the 27 libraries in the Arrowhead Library System or the Bookmobile.
- Please do not toss out the postage paid return address label. This is prepaid postage! If you are not returning your items by mail, just enclose it with the materials you will be returning.

Special Instructions to order Audio Books and DVDs

1. Please specify which format you are ordering. Many titles are available in more than one format. If not specified, we assume the patron wants a paperback book.
2. Because we have only one copy of most titles, we use a reserve list.
3. If you do not receive an audio-visual title that you have ordered, it is because other patrons have requested the material before you and your name has been placed on the reserve list. The material will be sent when your name comes to the top of the list. Please do not request this item a second time.
5. If you are moving or going on vacation, please let us know so that you will not receive any items that have been reserved for you.
6. Please clean your audio/visual equipment regularly.
7. The Arrowhead Library System is not responsible for any damage done to equipment by the materials it lends to its customers.

Interlibrary Loan Instructions (ordering books not listed in the catalog):

- Give the complete author and title of the book. If you need the information by a certain date, let us know that date. For subject requests, describe in depth what you are interested in receiving. If it is needed for a school report, please give the grade level.
- Check the box on your order card or web order form that states Send request to another library. If you are sending us a note, just let us know that it is okay to request the item from another library.
- Some materials that may not be available include: newly released bestsellers, reference materials, audio-visual, or rare or valuable materials.
- The materials will be sent to you in a padded envelope. You are responsible for the return postage to the lending library (you will have to go to your nearest United States Postal Service office and pay for the postage costs in person as regular postage stamps cannot be affixed), or you can also return the material to one of the 27 libraries in the Arrowhead Library System or the bookmobile. If you choose to return the material when you return Mail-A-Book items in our cloth bags or by using Mail-A-Book return postage, you must include $2.00 per item when returning the material(s). If you do not include the $2.00, we will add this fee to your library card account.

Data Privacy:

If you are concerned about privacy, you may limit the amount of information you fill out on the order card to just your library card number. Please print your card number clearly.

Life According to Og the Frog by Betty G. Birney (4 hrs.)

When Og the Frog first comes to Room 26, he doesn't know what to think. He misses his friends from the pond, there are all kinds of strange noises, and the water in his tank just might be too clean (you know, a little muck never hurt anyone). But the furry, squeaky fellow living next to him is endlessly entertaining, the kids sure are friendly, and--BING, BANG, BOING!--they put big fat crickets right into his tank.

Louisiana's Way Home by Kate DiCamillo (3.5 hrs.)

When Louisiana's granny wakes her up in the middle of the night to tell her that the day of reckoning has arrived and they have to leave home immediately, Louisiana isn't overly worried. After all, Granny has many middle-of-the-night ideas. But this time, things are different.

Northern Lights by Raymond Strom (7.5 hrs.)

On a clear morning in the summer of 1997, Shane Stephenson arrives in Holm, Minnesota, with only a few changes of clothes, an old Nintendo, and a few dollars to his name. Reeling from the death of his father, Shane wants not only to find the mother who abandoned him as an adolescent, hoping to reconnect, but also to understand himself better.

Once Upon a River by Diane Setterfield (16.5 hrs.)

As the novel opens, a small girl is rescued from a wintry river that winds through a village older than memory, a river that is central to the lives and imaginations of the people who live on its banks. Though initially thought dead, she miraculously begins to breathe again. What happened to her?

Open Your Eyes by Paula Daly (9.25 hrs.)

This pulse-pounding tale of domestic suspense follows a bestselling crime novelist's tragic turn from fictional perpetrator to real-life victim.

The Other Daughter by Lisa Gardner (12 hrs.)

Melanie has no memory of her life before the adoption. Now someone wants her to remember it all, even the darkest nightmare the Stokes family ever faced: the murder of their first daughter. As Melanie pursues every lead and chases every shadow in search of her real identity, two seemingly unrelated events from her past will come together in a dangerous explosion of truth.

Pandemic by Robin Cook (12 hrs.)

After a young, seemingly healthy woman collapses suddenly on the NYC subway and dies by the time she reaches the hospital, her case is initially chalked up to a virulent case of influenza. That is, until she ends up on Dr. Jack Stapleton's autopsy table, where Jack discovers something eerily fishy: first, that the young woman has had a heart transplant, and second, that her DNA matches that of the transplanted heart.

Pops by Michael Chabon (2.25 hrs.)

For the September 2016 issue of GQ, Michael Chabon wrote a piece about accompanying his son Abraham, then thirteen, to Paris Men's Fashion Week. Despite his own indifference, what gradually emerged as Chabon ferried his son to and from fashion shows was a deep respect for his son's passion. With the GQ story as its centerpiece and featuring six additional essays plus an introduction, this book illuminates the meaning, magic, and mysteries of fatherhood.

The Reckoning by John Grisham (18 hrs.)

Pete Banning was Clanton's favorite son, a returning war hero, the patriarch of a prominent family, a farmer, father, neighbor, and a faithful member of the Methodist church. Then one cool October morning in 1946 he rose early, drove into town, walked into the church, and calmly shot and killed the Reverend Dexter Bell.

Rescuing Ladybugs by Jennifer Skiff (9 hrs.)

Countless times throughout our lives, we're presented with a choice to help another soul. Rescuing Ladybugs highlights the true stories of remarkable people who didn't look away from seemingly impossible-to-change situations and instead worked to save animals.

Robert B. Parker's Blood Feud by Mike Lupica (7 hrs.)

Sunny Randall is 'on' again with Richie, the ex-husband she never stopped loving and never seemed to be able to let go, despite her discomfort with his mafia connections. When Richie is shot and nearly killed, Sunny is dragged into the thick of his family's business as she searches for answers and tries to stave off a mob war.

The Ruin of Kings by Jenn Lyons (27.5 hrs.)

Kihrin is an orphan who grew up on storybook tales of long-lost princes and grand quests. When he is claimed against his will as the long lost son of a treasonous prince, Kihrin finds that being a long lost prince isn't what the storybooks promised.

A Spark of Light by Jodi Picoult (14.5 hrs.)

The warm fall day starts like any other at the Center a women's reproductive health services clinic, its staff offering care to anyone who passes through its doors. Then, in late morning, a desperate and distraught gunman bursts in and opens fire, taking all inside hostage.

The 7 ½ Deaths of Evelyn Hardcastle by Stuart Turton (17 hrs.)
