The Divines

By Ellie Eaton

The girls of St John the Divine, an elite English boarding school, were notorious for flipping their hair, harassing teachers, chasing boys, and chain-smoking cigarettes. They were fiercely loyal and sharp-tongued. Josephine, now in her thirties, revisits the weeks leading up to the day the school was shuttered in disgrace. SCANDALS

I Carry Your Heart

By Barbara A Luker

Abby passed away leaving granddaughter Krista to discover a family secret hidden for six decades. A secret of passion so strong it would change all of their lives and forever change what they knew about the family matriarch. A story of undying love and sacrifice.

In Her Boots

By KJ Dell'Antonia

Rhett Gallagher's adventurous life is imploding. Just as she turns 40, her long-term relationship collapses and she is drawn back to the family farm. Rhett's book, The Modern Pioneer Girl's Guide to Life has become a wild success, which brings publicity, mistaken identity and a wild scheme to protect her new home.

Historical Novels

The Blue

By Nancy Bilyeau

In eighteenth century London, porcelain is the most seductive of commodities, fortunes are made and lost upon it. Battles are fought for possession of the finest pieces and the secrets of their manufacture. For Genevieve Planché, porcelain holds far less allure, but the secrets of the colour blue may lead to her dreams.

FINE ARTS / INDUSTRIAL ESPIONAGE / FRANCE

The Book of Lost Names

By Kristin Harmel

Eva Traube Abrams, a semiretired librarian in Florida, is at the returns desk one morning when her eyes lock on to a photograph in a newspaper. It's an image of a book she hasn't seen in 65 years. CRYPTOLOGY / FRANCE / WWII

The Child on Platform One

By Gill Thompson

Prague 1939. Young mother Eva has a secret from her past. When the Nazis invade, Eva knows the only way to keep her daughter Miriam safe is to send her away - even if it means never seeing her again. But when Eva is taken to a concentration camp, her secret is at risk of being exposed. In London, Pamela volunteers to help the Jewish children find homes.

The Diamond Eye

By Kate Quinn

In 1937 in the snowbound city of Kiev, wry and bookish history student Mila Pavlichenko organizes her life, her library job, and her young son, until Hitler's invasion of Ukraine and Russia sends her on a different path.

The Door-Man

By Peter M. Wheelwright.

In 1917, during the construction of a large reservoir, a young paleontologist identified fossils from an ancient forest flooded millions of years ago when the earth's botanical explosion of oxygen opened a path for the evolution of humankind. A mix of fact and fiction.

FOSSILS / RESERVOIR

The Dust Bowl Orphans

By Suzette D. Harrison

The dust cloud rolls in from nowhere, stinging our eyes and muddling our senses. I reach for my baby sister and pull her small body close to me. When the sky clears, we are alone on an empty road with no clue which way to go.

DUST BOWL ERA / 1931-1939 CALIFORNIA

The Forest of Vanishing Stars

By Kristin Harmel

1941. Stolen from her wealthy German parents and raised in the unforgiving wilderness of eastern Europe, Yona finds herself alone after her kidnapper dies. Her solitary existence is interrupted when she happens upon a group of Jews fleeing the Nazi terror. She vows to teach the group all she can about surviving in the forest.

HOLOCAUST / JEWISH

The Forgotten Orphan

By Glynis Peters

Abandoned when she was tiny, Maisie Reynolds isn't scared of Hitler or his devastating bombs. Her life at Holly Bush orphanage is already miserable enough. Poor Maisie has never known love, only cruelty. Suddenly she is able to bring kindness to lost and forgotten survivors.

CANADIANS / SOLDIERS / FAMILY SECRETS / WWII

The Fugitive Colours

By Nancy Bilyeau

As Genevieve Sturbridge struggles to keep her silk design business afloat, she must face the fact that London in 1764 is very much a man's world. Men control the arts and sciences, men control politics and law, and men definitely control women. A Huguenot living in Spitalfields, Genevieve one day receives a surprise invitation from an important artist.

The Last Year of the War

By Susan Meissner

Elise Sontag is a typical Iowa 14-year-old in 1943--aware of the war but distanced from its reach. Then her father, a legal U.S. resident for nearly two decades, is suddenly arrested on suspicion of being a Nazi sympathizer. The family is sent to an internment camp, where she feels stripped of everything beloved.

INTERMENT CAMP / GERMAN AMERICAN / JAPANESE AMERICAN

The Librarian Spy

By Madeline Martin

Ava thought her job as a librarian at the Library of Congress would mean a quiet, routine existence. But an unexpected offer from the U.S. military has brought her to Lisbon with a new mission: posing as a librarian while working undercover as a spy gathering intelligence. Meanwhile, in occupied France, Elaine has begun to work at a Resistance run printing press.

LIBRARIANS / ESPIONAGE / LISBON, PORTUGAL

Long Way Home

By Lynn Austin

The Jimmy Barnett who returns from war is different from the Jimmy who left, changed so drastically by his experience that he can barely function. His friend and parents seek to unravel tragic events and the identity of a woman from a photo found in his belongings.

Booth Girls

By Kim Heikkila

Kim's mother had a secret: in 1961, before her marriage, she became pregnant. After months in hiding, she gave birth to a daughter at the Salvation Army's Booth Memorial Hospital, a home for unwed mothers, then surrendered her child for adoption. Using careful research and sensitive interviews with other "Booth girls," Kim tells the stories of the Booth hospital and the women who passed through it. ADOPTION / BIOGRAPHY

Lake Trout Odyssey

By Francis Walsh maps illustrated by Joyce G Anderson

Francis Walsh used to be a fishing guide along the Gunflint Trail who spent the better part of 30 years obsessing about lake trout fishing. This quest led him on many adventures through hundreds of lakes along the Minnesota Ontario border country where tent and food were optional, but lake trout fishing wasn't.

Ordering Materials Using the Online Catalog

Go to: https://arrowhead.ent.sirsi.net/client/en_US/MAB

Or start at www.alslib.info (the ALS Home Page), click on Mail-A-Book

Then select “Search the Mail-A-Book Online Catalog” (which shows materials owned by Mail-a-Book). You may use the General Catalog which will show materials from all of the Arrowhead Library System locations. From the ALS Home Page select “On-Line Catalog”.

- Choose to search by Title, Author or Subject. Add your desired title, topic or other query to the search box.
- Once your results come up, click on the icon/picture of the material or the title that interests you.
- Then scroll down the page using the scroll bar on the right side of the section. At the bottom you will find the individual copies in our entire region. There are often multiple formats: Paperback, Hardcover, Large Print, Audiobook, DVDs and more.
- You may choose a specific copy from this list and click on words “Request This Item” to the right of the listing for specific titles. Doing this will place a hold on that particular copy.
- If you don't have a preference about which library the item comes from, go back to the top of the page and click the blue “Request an Item” button. This will allow the computer to choose the next available item for you regardless of location. Items from other libraries are Inter-Library Loan materials.
- You will be asked to log into your account using the number on your Arrowhead Library System card.
- You will need to choose the pick-up location, where you want the item sent.

Choose Mail-A-Book and we will get a notification to mail it to you. If it comes from another library, it will be mailed once it arrives here. (It will show up as “In Transit” until we check it out to you, then it will be on your list of checked out items. There is no further way to track your requests.)

If you prefer to get materials from the Mail-a-Book collection specifically, you will need to select specific items.

We will mail the materials from our collection free of charge if you are eligible for our services. We send all Mail-a-Book items in a zippered cloth bag with the pre-paid return postage ready for the return trip by mail. (The return postage slip is in the outside pocket, behind the one with your mailing label on it.)

Inter-Library Loan Materials:

Things that come from other libraries are mailed in Mail-A-Book zippered cloth bags now to save on packaging. You may return items in a Mail-a-Book zippered bag; or by dropping off the item and bag at a library or the Bookmobile.

Inter-Library Loan materials may accrue fines if returned late (You may call to renew if needed).

Please feel free to call if you have any questions

Mail-A-Book patrons are eligible to use the statewide library material borrowing system called MNLINK.

To use this service:

1. Search the Arrowhead Library System online catalog for the desired item at alslib.info
2. If the libraries in our region do not have it available, search the MNLINK website. mmlink.org
3. Place requests with your ALS library card and PIN. (A Personal Identification Number is now required.)
4. Use ALV - ALS HQ as your pickup location. (Mail-A-Book patrons are allowed to use this location.)
5. Note "Mail-A-Book" in the special instructions box at the bottom of the form on each request.
6. Contact us for more information or to have Mail-A-Book place your request.

How to use Mail-A-Book

Mail-A-Book is an Arrowhead Library System service with a collection of books and audio-visual materials that can be ordered by and mailed to qualified patrons at no cost to them.

To Order Materials:

Library materials may be ordered in the following ways:

MAIL with a letter, postcard, or an order card:

E-MAIL at: mailbook@alslib.info

PHONE CALL at 218-741-3840 (ask for Mail-A-Book)

ONLINE FORM at: www.alslib.info/services/Mail-A-Book

ONLINE CATALOG (See our website for assistance.)

Filling out an Order Card or Online Ordering Form:

- PRINT your name, MAILING address & zip code on each order. Put your ALS Library Card number on your order. If you do not have a card, print "no card" and we will send you an application. (Applications are available online.)
- List titles from one of our current catalogs, or an author, subject or series list. New arrivals and older titles are also available.
- Please identify what you are looking for:
Book Large Print Graphic Novel Audiobook CD DVD
- When a requested item is checked out to another patron, we will place a request for you. We will send the requests when available. If you mark YES, we will SUBSTITUTE a similar BOOK to read while you wait. We only make substitutions for books.
- If Mail-A-Book does not own the title you asked for, we can search for it from another library. Mark YES "I want it from another library" on your order. This is known as Interlibrary Loan or ILL, (see below).

When the materials arrive:

- Mail-A-Book materials are mailed in a zippered cloth bag.
- Along with the materials you requested, there will be a printed date due slip, blank order cards, and other notifications.

To return materials:

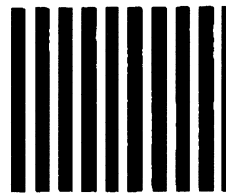

- The pre-paid return postage card is in the plastic pocket on the front of the bag. Please, do not toss out the return postage card, it has already been paid for. (If you are combining bags or dropping off your items, please leave the card with the bag for us to use for another mailing.)
- Place the materials you are returning in the cloth bag.
- Add your new order to the plastic sleeve and include it, too.
- Zip bag, and place it in your mailbox, or drop it off at a Post Office, ALS Library Dropbox, the Bookmobile, or any ALS Library.

Interlibrary Loan Instructions:

- Give the full title and author of the book. For subject requests, describe what type of information you are wanting.
- Mark YES "I want it from another library" on your order.
- You will be notified if the material requested is not available.
- The materials will be mailed to you in a padded paper envelope. You may return the material in our cloth bag with your Mail-A-Book items. You can also return the material to any ALS library. If you return the materials by mail you must pay for the return postage. Do not attempt to return the items in the paper mailer without adding postage.
- The materials borrowed from other libraries may be subject to late fees. Please plan to use these first so they can be returned in a timely manner.

Please call if you have any questions.
